

About Coach Grasty and the Abington Ghosts Boys Basketball Team:

Coach Grasty is a former Abington Ghost basketball player and a 1990 graduate. Coach Grasty began his head coaching career in 2009, and has led the team to win seven straight Suburban One regular season titles. The team has advanced and won the District One, Class 6A Championship three consecutive years in 2017, 2018, and 2019. Over the last nine years, the Abington Galloping Ghosts are proud to boast of a 197-56 record! For the 2018-2019 season, Abington's 28 wins was tied for the second most team wins in school history! For the first time in Abington history, the Ghosts was nationally ranked. The team appeared on the USA Today National Ranking High School Poll five weeks in a row, and finished being named 17th in the nation. Go Ghosts!

About Coach Marsh and the Abington Lady Ghosts Basketball Team:

Under the tutelage of Coach Dan Marsh, the Abington Lady Ghosts Girls Basketball Team has won numerous league championships and two district championships. The Lady Ghosts can boast of winning twenty or more games in six straight seasons. As a result of this impressive record, they have also qualified for the state playoffs for six straight years! Over a fourteen year period, Coach Dan Marsh has led the Lady Ghosts to win 287 games, which is an impressive average of 20.5 wins per season! Go Lady Ghosts!
